

Father Duenas Memorial School

I would like to recommend to you (Mrs.) Myrene A. Magabo whom I have known for the past year as a teacher of English at this school. I am the head of the English Department, and her immediate supervisor for curriculum and instruction. We also share a free period together, so I have come to know her quite well.

Her present position requires that she teach four periods of Freshmen English and one period of Junior English Composition. Her Freshman English Class has a dual emphasis of literature and writing. The Junior Composition Class emphasizes essay writing, vocabulary, and grammar.

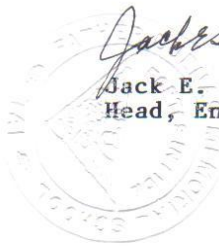

Mrs. Magabo has excellent credentials. She has a great command of both the knowledge and skills needed to teach English. She also has a broad knowledge of activities to use with her students. She is always well prepared for her classes. She has assumed her duties as a teacher here and carried them out well.

As a person Mrs. Magabo has a pleasing personality. She is intelligent, industrious, and diligent. She makes friends easily and is well liked among the faculty.

Because Mrs. Magabo is well qualified and has carried out her duties as a teacher faithfully and reliably, I do not hesitate to give her a strong recommendation.

Sincerely,

01/21/2005

To Whom It May Concern:

Mrs. Myrene A. Magabo is extremely dedicated to her teaching profession. Her educational background reveals a highly qualified and educated individual in Communication, Journalism, Literature, Composition: Grammar and Writing.

She consistently evaluates teaching methods [professional/personal] in relation to student comprehension and performance. She is conscientious in planning and implementing class material and presentation methods, and follows up on student progress or lack thereof. She creates a learning environment enhancing student achievement, potential, and instills a level of confidence in their intellectual abilities. She places a high emphasis on students developing social skills incorporating moral values and ethical behavior in the classroom.

In spite of her educational background and qualifications, Mrs. Magabo is open to learning new methods and seeking advice from colleagues. I firmly believe she will be an asset to your educational and/or business endeavors.

If I can be of further assistance please contact me at [671] 688-7049.

Sincerely,

Fr. Patrick Castro OFM Cap.

Letter of Recommendation for Mrs. Myrene A. Magabo

To Whom It May Concern:

Mrs. Magabo has outstanding qualification for her profession as English Teacher. Her mastery of written and oral communication skills is to be commend. She has set the standard for all fellow teachers to follow within the English Department of Father Duenas High School.

As Athletic Director and Head of the Physical Educational Department, one of my goals is to have well educated student body. Mrs. Magabo's curriculum and instructional technique aided my department in establishing and maintaining this position.

I highly recommend Mrs. Magabo to any position within your English Department. She is a very loyal and conscientious person and teacher.

Thank you,

Ed E. Brown
Athletic Director
